

Boris Bajagic
Club Head Coach
National "A" License holder

chchotspurs@rogers.com

Boris has forty-five years of soccer experience in variety of duties - player, coach, instructor, consultant, Club Head Coach, international soccer statistician and historian – actively working at all levels of soccer development in different parts of the world.

Boris spent twenty five years of active work and training in youth development programs in Malaysia, South-East Asia and Canada with emphasize on development in both junior and senior levels. He has a vast experience in soccer management in both professional and amateur level with successful work within both professional and community soccer clubs.

Specialized in soccer scouting in all junior age groups (U8 - U18) Boris is also Ontario Soccer Association Instructor. Experienced in coaching competitive teams in Canada – from semi-pro teams (FC Wizard, Ottawa) to various Hotspurs OYSL teams. Boris is also member of International Soccer Statisticians and Historians who published numerous articles related to history of soccer.