Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club – Toronto FC Youth Academy - Boys Identification Camp

The Toronto FC Academy & Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club will hold an Identification Camp for boys on September 25th and 26th, 2010. The ID Camp is open to all boys born from 1997 through 2003. Participating players and coaches will have the opportunity to work with the Toronto FC Youth Academy Manager and Junior Team Coach Stuart Neely, Nepean Hotspurs Club Head Coach Boris Bajagic (CSA "A" License) as well as the following Hotspurs Staff Coaches: Duane Barker (CSA "B" License), Kingsley Knight (CSA "B" License) and Adam Knight (CSA "B" License).

Participation in the ID Camp is free of charge.

The main objective of the ID Camp is to identify talented players who would be considered for development under the Toronto FC Youth Academy @ Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club program. Details about the Toronto FC Youth Academy program and concept can be viewed at Academy.

The Toronto FC Academy @ Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club ID Camp is also a great opportunity for players to experience first class soccer training, and to learn new techniques, while having fun at the same time. Parents can also meet coaches and speak with them about ways to progress through the Canadian soccer system. Coach Stewart Neely of Toronto FC will provide a realistic outlook regarding future player development in the Canadian youth development system – you simply don't want to miss this opportunity.

The ID Camp is open to players outside the Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club.

Registration deadline is September 15th, 2010. Players not currently active with the Nepean Hotspurs Soccer Club will be required to attend an evaluation session in advance of the ID Camp. See ID Camp for more information.
